DOWNEAST TEEN LEADERSHIP CAMP

DownEast Teen Leadership Camp (DETLC) is a week long overnight summer camp experience for teens held at the University of Maine at Machias. Our 5-day program challenges and empowers teens by providing them with the skills necessary to positively impact their lives and those in their communities. DETLC creates a safe and fun environment to be yourself, meet new teens and form long lasting friendships.

What Takes Place at DETLC?

- Mini Workshops
- FUN & interactive Family Group sessions
- No-Talent Night
- Team-building Activities
- Dance & Pizza Party
- Three Motivational Speakers
- Bon Fire
- Choice Time (swimming, crafts, games etc)

National Speakers:

Steve Gerety's educational and inspirational keynote, "It's Up To You!" focuses on the importance of making positive choices everyday that lead students in the direction of their dreams. His entertaining and engaging style makes his message meaningful, memorable and fun.

Harriet Turk pulls no punches and connects with her audiences because she "tells it like it is. By reinforcing the concept that we all possess personal power, participants learn that while they might be in charge of their choices, they don't always get to choose the consequences. Learning how to cope with failure and try again are essential and there's nobody better than Harriet Turk to show you how to "Just Deal With It!"

Who can attend DETLC?

Any student who is entering grades 7, 8 or 9 and wants to have FUN!

Team building

Whether it is an auditorium of one hundred students or a gymnasium of two thousand, Ed Gerety instantly captures the audience's attention through his passion, personal experiences, humor and real life examples. His assembly programs and workshops are high-energy, interactive, and leave a lasting impact.
